

FOOD FORTHOUGHT

LATE WINTER/EARLY SPRING 2026

MEET CANDACE

Candace connected with KLF in late October and expressed her deep concern about how the government shutdown, SNAP benefit delays, and cuts in federal funding were going to impact how KLF could serve the community. "You are probably going to limit visits or start saying 'no' more often, right?" Candace questioned. We shared that KLF is committed to being there when we are needed most, and we have received many generous food and fund donations from our community in an attempt to offset these cuts. Candace immediately became very emotional and started crying as she said, "I am so relieved. Not every month, but some months, I rely on KLF to help make sure I have enough to eat. The delivery program makes it possible because I don't have a car."

MEET DALE

Dale, in his early 70s, recently contacted KLF to schedule an appointment. Immediately, our Call Center could tell he was deeply distressed. "I am disabled and living on a fixed income. Really, I live within my means and don't expect a lot. But I just got a letter saying that my SNAP benefits have been cut to $23 per month because my disability payments went up $41 per month," Dale shared. He once again reinforced that he doesn't expect much and doesn't want to live a fancy lifestyle. However, when every dollar is budgeted and the cost of living keeps increasing, it is more difficult to make the numbers work. "I haven't had any food for three days," Dale said quietly as he started crying. When Dale was informed that he could get groceries from KLF twice per month, he began to cry harder with relief. "KLF is life changing. I need high protein items for my health, and you can help me," Dale remarked. "KLF literally makes the world turn in our community."

MEET FAITH

"It's really the little things that matter," Faith shared while scheduling an appointment for her and her two young sons. "Your pantry has been a godsend during this rough patch." Faith had reached out to KLF in early fall after her hours were cut at work just as some significant house repairs were needed. As a single mom, she wants her sons to be resilient but also wants them to be comfortable and have a sense of normalcy after a few rough years. "I so appreciate your kindness and the nutritional items — they have been a blessing. On my last visit, I asked the staff if there were any juice boxes for the kids. I felt bad that it was a special request, but we could use them in their lunches," Faith stated. "The staff were able to find something, and my boys were so thankful! Hopefully by the end of the year [2025], we won't need your services anymore."

A NOTE FROM JEN

Kalamazoo Loaves & Fishes is always grateful to partner with local schools, colleges, and universities. We regularly work with Western Michigan University through various channels, including supporting the Montgomery Essential Needs Pantry, teaming up with Bronco Athletics for food drives and volunteerism, and hosting an internship with the Broncos Lead Program. We've been thrilled to have Grace Mulock, WMU student, join our team as a Communications Intern. For this newsletter, we decided to chat with Grace about her experience at KLF.

— Jennifer Johnson, Executive Director

Q: Tell us about the Broncos Lead program. How did you get involved with KLF?

A: The program offers a way for students to get involved in the local community. Grant funding also allows students to be compensated for their internship, which is great. Last year, my professor Dr. Randy Ott connected me with KLF because he serves on the Board and thought it would be a great fit. I applied to Broncos Lead program and interviewed at KLF to secure the internship.

Q: What have you been focusing on during your internship?

A: I am studying Interpersonal Communications with a minor in Marketing. At KLF, I have been focusing on social media marketing, graphic design, outreach events, and learning all about the organization. It has been an amazing experience. Everyone has been so encouraging and supportive. KLF offers a great environment to learn every day.

Q: How does social media engagement benefit KLF? How can our followers help support our mission?

A: Social media gives an opportunity for KLF to share everything we're doing. Posting stories, photos, and videos allow people to see behind the scenes and offers a glimpse of every day work. It's really cool to highlight our volunteers and community partners too! Followers can help support by tuning in, engaging with posts, and sharing posts to increase awareness. And if you are inspired by what you see on social media — reach out! Donate online or share the mission with your friends. I think one of the easiest ways to help support is by connecting digitally!

Grace Mulock, WMU student and KLF Communications Intern

We'd love to hear your thoughts on social media and online engagement. Do you follow KLF? Check us out on Facebook and Instagram and feel free to share our content. Are there topics you'd like to see more? Let us know! 😊

BE A KLF FUNDRAISING AMBASSADOR!

There are many easy ways to run a fundraising campaign with your peers. Here are some ideas that don't take a lot of time but can have a significant impact.

- Host a fundraiser on your social media page (e.g. Facebook fundraiser)
- Tell people about your recent donation and encourage them to match it
- Requests that friends bring donations to your next Game Night, Dinner Party, Book Club or BBQ
- Collect donations from your social groups (e.g. golf league, book club)
- Ask friends and family to donate in your honor for special occasions (e.g. birthdays, anniversaries)

Your dedication to alleviating food insecurity can inspire others to give! Be creative and share your enthusiasm for our mission. For more information, contact Greta Faworski at 269-488-2617 x208 or greta@kzoolf.org.

Welcome to the Team!

Mei Lanting

Mohammad Alhasan

Lily Meskil

We are pleased to announce new additions to our Staff and Board of Directors.

On the Services team, we welcomed Mei Lanting and Mohammad Alhasan. Mei and Mohammad are busy with our Melzer and Douglass pantries, the Call Center, and the walk-up client door, providing excellent customer service each day to the individuals we serve.

One individual has recently joined our Board of Directors. We are excited to welcome Lily Meskil, a Marketing Research Analyst from Advia Credit Union. Lily's experience with marketing and data analysis will be quite helpful to both the Board of Directors and our Resource Development Committee.

With Deep Gratitude

Dan Haines

Kevin Janssen

We would like to express tremendous appreciation to two board members whose terms expired at the end of 2025.

Dan Haines served as our Board President for the past two years and had been on the Board for six years prior. During his time on the Board, Dan served on our Finance Committee and was dedicated to increasing awareness of KLF throughout the community.

Kevin Janssen was an invaluable member of both our Board and the Services Committee for eight years, also working hard to increase awareness of KLF's work and making essential community connections. Both individuals were actively involved at KLF during a transformational time in our organization's history. We deeply appreciate their time, valuable input, and dedication to this volunteer leadership role and our community.

IMPORTANT TAX CHANGE FOR ## NON-ITEMIZER CHARITABLE DEDUCTION

If you claim the standard deduction on your federal taxes, you may not view charitable giving as an important tax break.

However, starting January 1, 2026, there is a new tax law that will allow you to deduct charitable donations EVEN IF you do not itemize.

WHO QUALIFIES?

Taxpayers who take the standard deduction rather than itemizing.

WHAT AMOUNT CAN YOU DEDUCT?

Up to $1,000 of qualified cash contributions if you're a single filer.

Up to $2,000 if you're married filing jointly.

WHAT KINDS OF DONATIONS COUNT?

Cash donations only (gifts by check, credit card, online payment, or payroll deduction).

They must be made to qualified public charities under IRS rules (like KLF!).

Donations to donor-advised funds or private foundations do not qualify.

To learn more, contact your tax advisor or Greta Faworski at greta@kzoolf.org for more information.
